

Books knock our socks off!

Literacy Week: January 22 – 26, 2024

Hello families! We are ready for some fun! Here's what is coming up during literacy week at PEXSISEN this year!

Mon. Jan 22 - Kick off and read in your funky sock.

During a schoolwide assembly students will listen to a silly story about socks and hear about all of the fun things planned for the week. Wear mismatched or funky socks and get ready to do some reading.

Tue. Jan 23 – Read in the halls

A time to gather our in our beautiful flex spaces, connect with friends in other classes and share a story together.

Wed. Jan 24 – Read with a stuffy day

Students are invited to bring a stuffy from home to cuddle and read with during the day.

Thurs. Jan 25th – Book Swap

Students will have the opportunity to go to the gym to choose a new to them book to bring home. (Please send donations in soon!)

Fri. Jan 26th – Letter day.

Students will write letters to children in other classes. This is the day that the letters will be delivered. It is so much fun!

*Watch for more information to come home soon about our Reading Bingo fundraiser. There will be lot of fun challenges and it's a great way to support the learning that happens at PEXSISEN! The fundraiser will run from Jan. 22 – Feb. 2nd. Find your favourite books to read and help support our amazing school.
